Hymnal No.301

The month of August we celebrate the Holy Dormition (Falling Asleep) of St. Mary. She who is the Mother of Our Savior, when her life was ended, was taken by her Son to the glory of heaven. She as the first fruit of His resurrection, leads the way for all faithful Christians. We too will reign in eternity, body and soul, at the end of time.

Bible Study this Wednesday after the 5:30 PM Mass.

Coming in September 17, Saturday, we will have our annual potluck at Amy Bogart's home in Contoocook, NH. Please reserve that date for fellowship, food, and fun!

Remember to pray for all those who are absent from our congregation, especially because of illness, or are sheltering at home. Even though there is a physical separation they remain united to us in the Holy Eucharist.

Flower donation envelops are available to commemorate a life event or to remember a loved one.

Acts of Adoration during Holy Communion:
*Jesus, my Lord and my God. All my love to Thee, my God!
